

What was CBS thinking? The superbowl is the largest television event of the year, and they choose artists(?) who sing about crack, whores, sex, drinking, etc. The producers of that half time disgusting debacle should be fired. Plus, the Timberlake/Jackson "incident" was just the final insult!